General Information

Course Titles, Descriptions, Hours and DRE Category

Real Estate Economics: The economics of a parcel of real estate are characterized in light of land use patterns, supply and demand factors, forces driving the housing sector, business cycle influences on non-residential income properties, and local demographics. Coupled with issues ranging from national monetary and taxing policies to local use restrictions and national, regional, and local economic cycles.

Method of presentation: Correspondence/internet.

Course hours: 45

Exam Information

Each final exam is open book, timed and consists of 100 multiple choice questions. The time allotted is 2 hours and 30 minutes per exam. You must obtain a minimum passing score of 60%. A backup exam is available immediately if you fail an exam. The backup exam covers the same course material as the original exam, but the questions are not the same. If you do not pass the backup exam, that course is automatically reset and requires you to wait another 18-day study period before you may attempt the exam again.
